

WAREHOUSE QUALITY TECHNICIAN

The Warehouse Quality Technician will be responsible for providing quality support for aero-derivative gas turbine programs at the Mitsubishi Power Aero warehouse in Bloomfield, CT.

Job Requirements

- Perform inspection of new and overhauled parts received from suppliers.
- Inspect parts stored in the warehouse prior to being moved to Wood Group Pratt & Whitney for engine assembly; coordinate delivery to WGPW.
- Inspect parts at supplier, partner, or customer locations as needed.
- As part of the inspection process, ensure all supplier documentation is accurate and meets requirements.
- Execute supplier source inspections.

Special Skills

- Highly adaptable, effective team player with the ability to develop and sustain change activities
- Engineering drawing interpretation; GD&T with the ability to interpret CMM data outputs
- Hard gaging experience, including calipers and micrometers
- CMM or other machine tool programming experience

Education/Experience

- Associates degree/trade school certificate in a technical discipline preferred
- 3 to 10 years of Quality Inspection required
- Gas turbine, submarine, surface ship, or automotive quality experience
- SAP (preferred) or other ERP system experience
- Proficiency with MS 365 suite

Additional Requirements

- Occasional travel to domestic/foreign suppliers to perform source inspection